BRIEFING OVERVIEW

Eight sections. One question: will you help us build this correctly.

08 The First Mission

Military service may end. The deeper mission continues.

Every warfighter answered a call that existed before the uniform. Service gave that calling a battlefield, a team, and a defined objective. But retirement or separation can remove that structure without removing the warrior's need for identity, purpose, and contribution.

The Warfighter's Soul helps warfighters prepare for the mission that continues beyond service.

Strength can conceal the need for restoration.

- 01 Trained to endure, perform, protect, and keep moving.
- 02 Often appear functional while carrying unseen weight.
- 03 May distrust conventional support systems.
- 04 May not recognize or disclose what they are carrying.
- 05 Can lose identity and direction when the visible mission ends.
- 06 Often wait until private pain becomes a crisis.

We are building a trusted path that reaches the warfighter before the bottom.

The Pure PPP Program creates a private path from survival back to purpose.

01

Power

Understand what still holds influence and begin reclaiming personal agency.

02

Pattern

Identify the recurring patterns shaping decisions, relationships, and behavior.

03

Purpose

Reconnect identity and experience to the mission still ahead.

Eight weeks. Eight private sessions. One warfighter.

$2,500 sponsors one warfighter through the complete eight-week program.

$$\text{$312.50 per session} \times 8 \text{ private sessions} = \text{$2,500}$$

The sponsorship removes the financial barrier and gives one warfighter direct access to the complete Pure PPP restoration process with Dr. Greg Wark.

$2,500

sponsors 1 warfighter

$12,500

sponsors 5 warfighters

$25,000

sponsors 10 warfighters

The coaching restores one life. The organization builds the path to reach many.

Individual coaching is the intervention. Building the Mission creates the trusted infrastructure required to identify warfighters, remove barriers, deliver the process responsibly, reinforce their progress, and measure the impact.

Building the Mission creates the capacity to reach and restore more warfighters.

01

Mission Reach

Build trusted relationships with military, veteran, law-enforcement, first-responder, chaplain, family, and community networks.

02

Program Access

Identify qualified participants, remove the financial barrier, and place warfighters into the eight-week program.

03

Coach Readiness

Train and support qualified coaches while protecting the integrity and quality of the PPP framework.

04

Community Reinforcement

Provide peer connection, alumni support, group conversations, mentorship, and continued resources after the eight weeks.

05

Impact Accountability

Track participation, completion, services delivered, participant progress, responsible use of funds, and lessons that improve the program.

Not vague awareness or growth for its own sake — the operational capacity to reach warfighters who may never ask for help, and serve them responsibly when they are ready.

This mission needs more than funding. It needs trusted leadership.

You understand the people we are called to serve — their culture, their strength, their reluctance to ask for help, and the responsibility leaders carry for those who served under them.

- Build with credibility and accountability
- Understand where the need is greatest
- Reach trusted military and veteran communities
- Avoid cultural and operational blind spots
- Form the right organizational relationships
- Identify potential participants and partners
- Bring other credible leaders and supporters into the mission
- Establish a responsible model that can expand

We are not asking only for a contribution. We are asking whether you will help us build this mission correctly.

Help us build and sponsor an initial 10-warfighter pilot.

This first initiative would give ten warfighters a structured opportunity to reclaim agency, restore identity, and reconnect with the purpose still ahead.

The Warfighter's Soul exists to restore and equip warfighters for the mission that continues beyond service.
